INTENTION OF LAW HELD PLAIN

Religious Liberty Plea Is Flouted by Judges on the Supreme Bench

MADISON, Wis., June 17.—In the case of Peterson vs. Widule, Milwaukee county clerk, the state supreme court this morning sustained the so-called eugenics marriage law. The opinion was written by Chief Justice J. B. Winslow.

The chief argument made against the law was that it was unreasonable because it requires every male applicant for marriage license to submit to all of the recognized tests for syphilis, one of which is the very expensive and delicate Wassermann test, which not more than twenty-five physicians in the state can give.

Purpose Plain
The opinion, in part, says: "Neither the legislative idea nor the legislative purpose in the passage of the present law can be a matter of serious doubt. The idea was plainly that the transmission of the so-called venereal diseases by newly married men to their innocent wives was a tremendous evil, and the purpose just as plainly was to remedy that evil as far as possible by preventing the marriage of men who upon examination were found to possess such diseases."

The opinion reviews the tests for the detection of disease and points out that in the great majority of cases they are easily discernible. It continues:

Not Necessarily Wasserman
"In view of all these facts, and in view of the fact that the legislature wished to reach practical and possible results, it seems unreasonable to suppose that they intended to prescribe tests which the great majority of the official examiners were unable to make. We prefer to construe the words 'recognized tests' as intended to refer to the tests recognized and used by the people who were to make them. This construction sustains the law, makes it reasonable, accomplishes its evident purpose, provides for a guard for marriage fully as effective in the vast majority of cases as the Wassermann test."

"We have not been able to appreciate the force of the argument that the law interferes in any respect with religious liberty. We know of no church which desires its ministers to profane the marriage tie by uniting a man afflicted with a loathsome disease to an innocent woman."

SAVRE PEEVED BY QUESTION

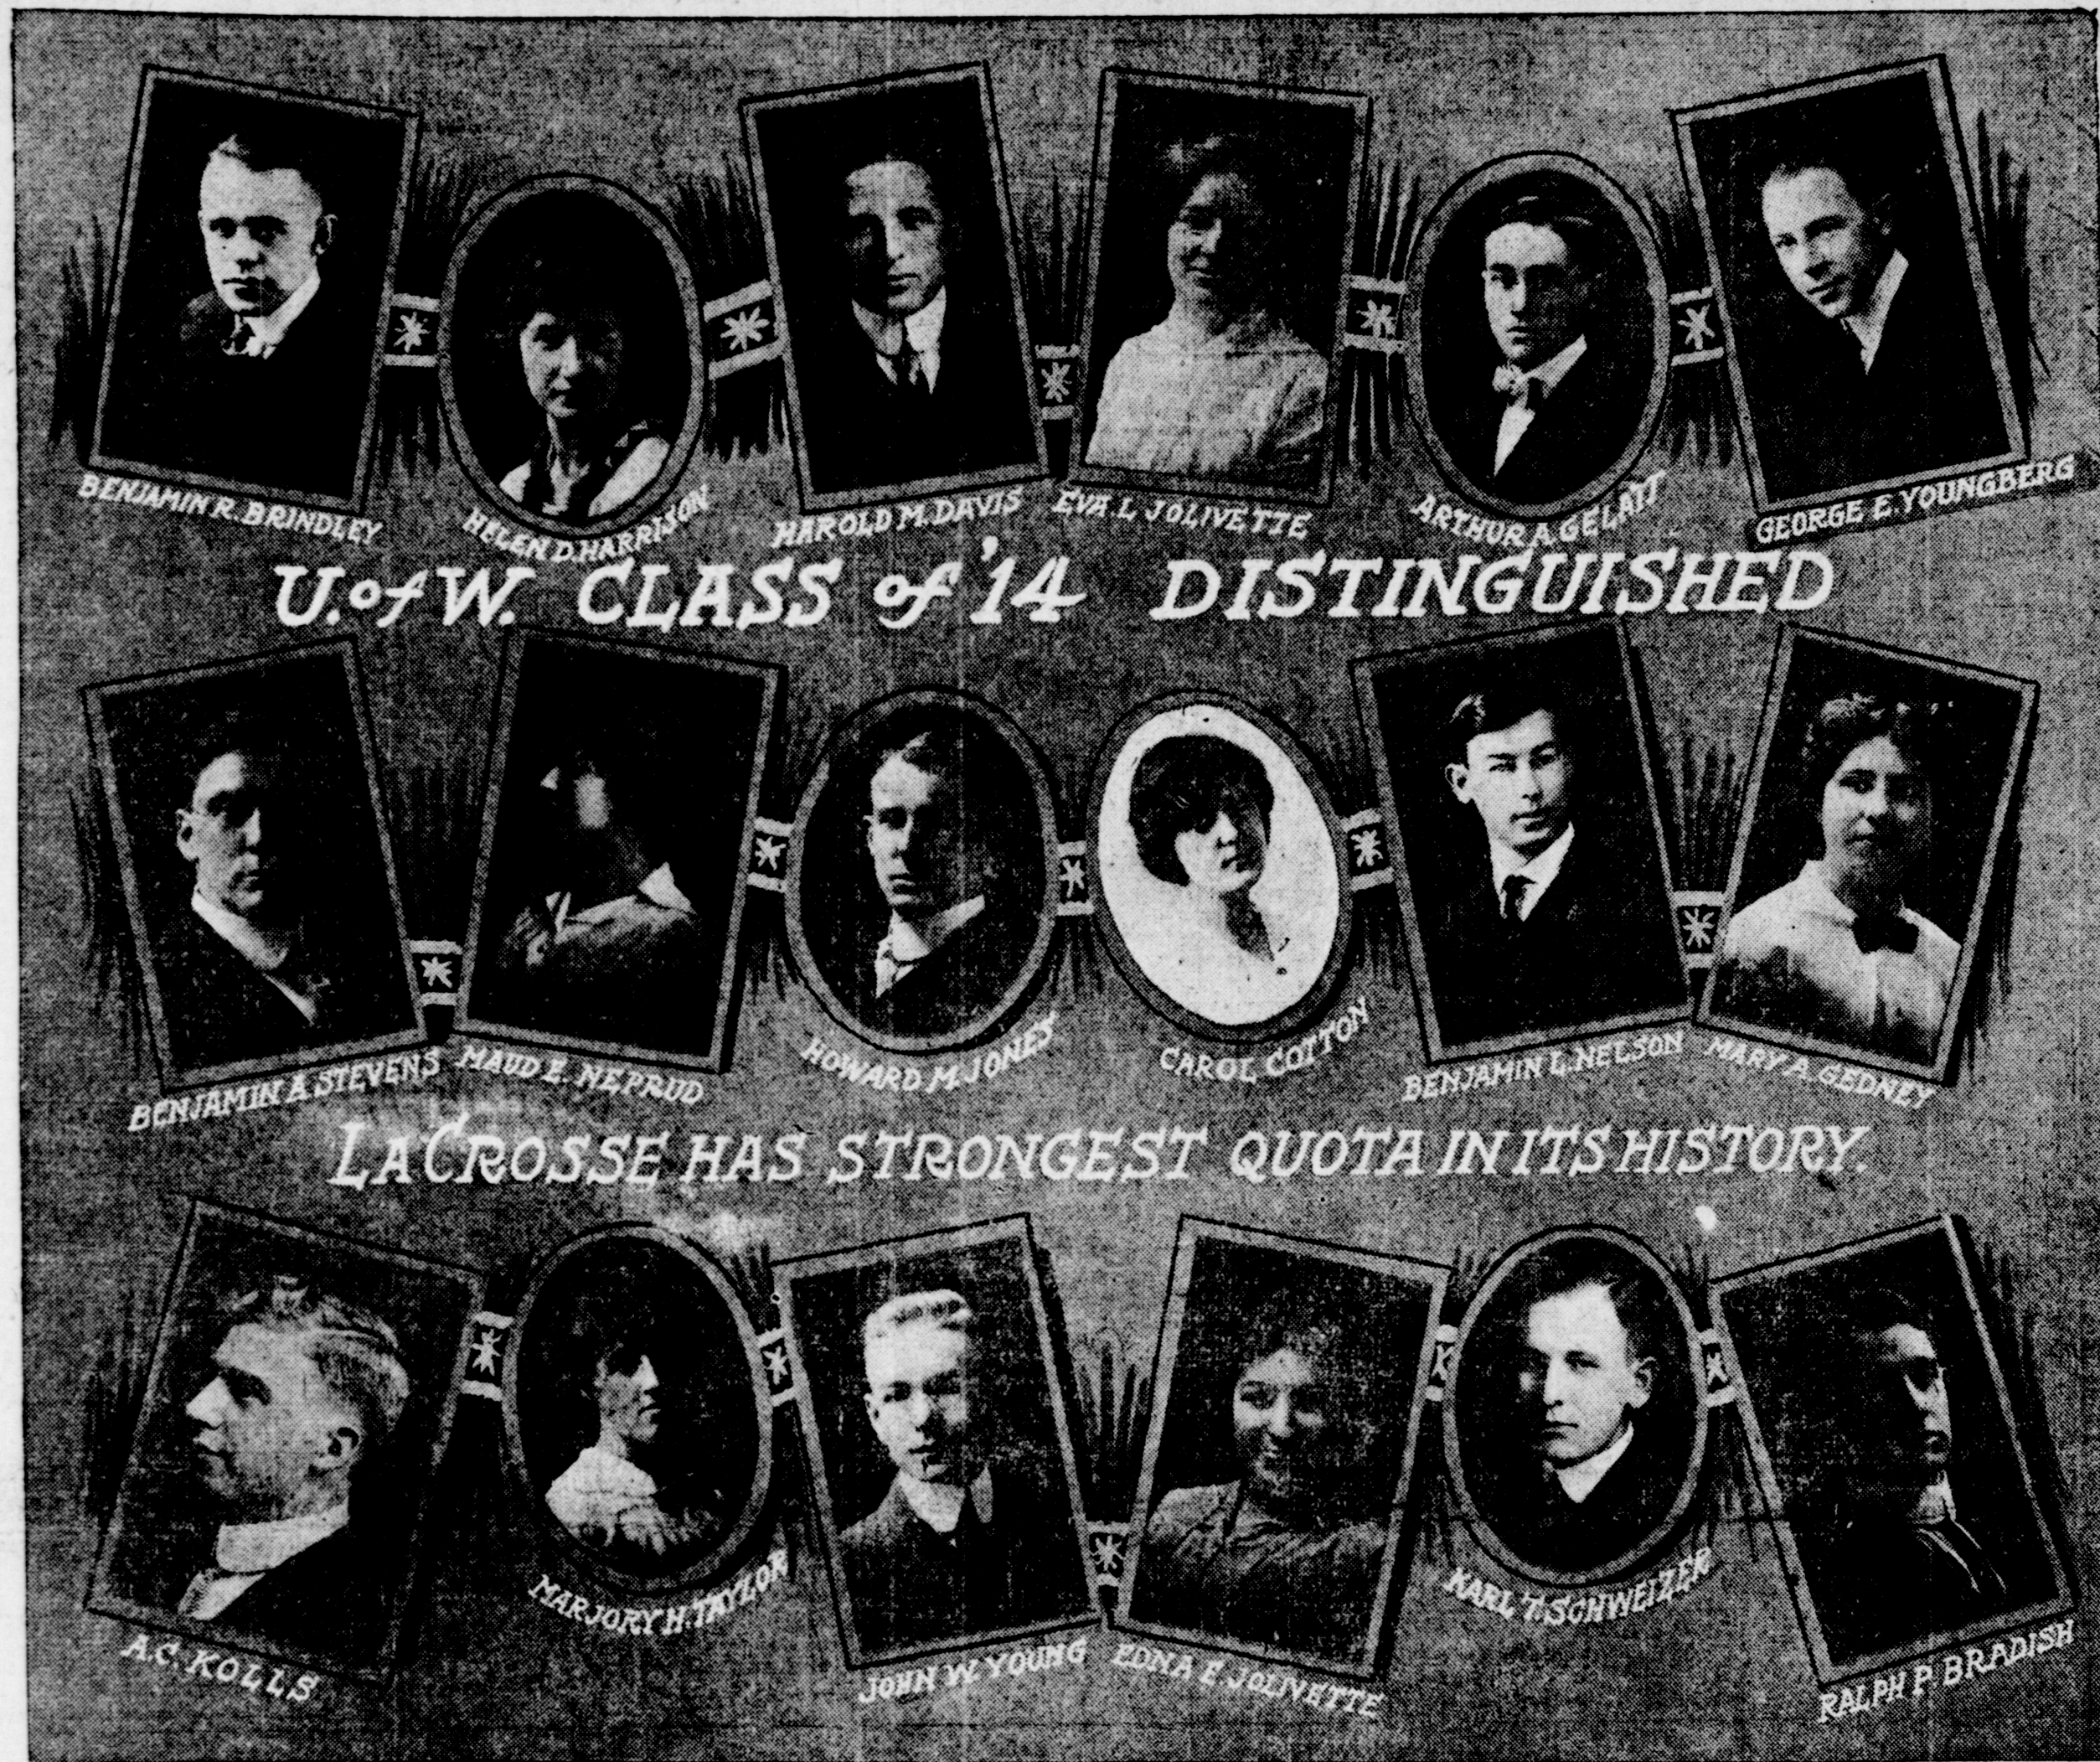

CHICAGO, June 17.—Francis B. Savre flushed an angry red and answered sharply and warmly today when a reporter asked him how it felt to be the son-in-law of a president. "That is a question I positively refuse to answer," he said. The president's son-in-law came here today from Minneapolis on a tour of the west in the interest of a movement to raise a $2,000,000 endowment fund for Williams college, where he is assistant to the college president.

CAPT. SCHULTZ WILL BE BURIED IN HIS UNIFORM THURSDAY

The pallbearers will be members of the Casberg camp, and the honorary pallbearers members of the Brewery Workers' union.

The U. S. W. V. ritual service will be used at the Oak Grove cemetery. A last salute will be fired over his grave by a firing squad and taps are to be sounded.

EIGHTEEN FROM THIS CITY WILL GRADUATE TODAY

Largest Number of La Crosse Persons Ever Members of Single Class at the State University

TWO CLASS OFFICERS IN GROUP

Miss Maud Neprud Is Vice President and Ben Brindley Treasurer of the Class of 1914

MANY HONORED IN ACHIEVEMENT

Phi Beta Kappa and Iron Cross Are Represented and Every Branch of Athletic Endeavor

MADISON, Wis., June 17.—(Special)—Eighteen La Crosse young men and women, constituting the largest number of young people from the Gateway City ever graduated from a higher institution of learning at the same time, will this evening, receive diplomas at the commencement exercises of the University of Wisconsin. Their graduation will mark the completion of four years of earnest preparation for the future, in practically every college of the University. For many of them the business and professional world will open following the commencement ceremonies, but for some the knowledge thus far acquired during their college course has proved an incentive for still further study.

The Eighteen.
Those who will finish are: Ralph P. Bradish, son of City Engineer and Mrs. George P. Bradish. Benjamin R. Brindley, son of Judge and Mrs. John Brindley. Carol Wright Cotton, daughter of President and Mrs. F. A. Cotton. Harold M. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Davis. Arthur A. Gelatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland B. Gelatt. Helen D. Harrison, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude B. Harrison. Edna E. Jolivet, daughter of Peter L. Jolivet, West La Crosse. Eva L. Jolivet, daughter of Peter L. Jolivet, West La Crosse. Howard M. Jones, son of Mrs. Josephine Jones, 1632 Ferry street. Alfred C. Kolls, son of Mr. Conrad A. Kolls, 708 S. Fifth street. Benjamin L. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Nelson, 1403 Kane street. Maud E. Neprud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Neprud. Karl T. Schweizer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Schweizer, 116 South Fourteenth street. Benjamin A. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Stevens, until recently of La Crosse, now of Hastings, Minn. Marjory H. Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Taylor. John W. Young, son of Mrs. John D. Young, 1029 Cameron avenue. George E. Youngberg, son of Mrs. Nels A. Magnusson, 710 Ferry street. Mary A. Gedney, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Gedney, Onalaska City.

Pleasant University.
The graduation in a single year of so large a contingent from La Crosse is regarded as symbolical of the increasing interest which is being taken in education in La Crosse, and is looked upon in a very favorable manner by the University authorities. It is a source of pride and gratification to citizens at home. The total is three times greater than the largest La Crosse delegation to receive its scholastic honors on the same occasion here in any previous year, and comprises almost one-third of the La Crosse representation of 61 students in attendance at the University. The size of the delegation bespeaks well for the interest of La Crosse in the state college, and for the confidence it has placed in the institution.

Two Class Officers
Probably in no other group of eighteen Senior students selected at random from the class of 650 who will be graduated, can a more representative body be found than is presented by the La Crosse crowd. Two are class officers, Miss Neprud being vice-president and Mr. Brindley treasurer. Among them are to be found men and women who have been prominent in practically every student activity, and who have held positions of trust and responsibility, places that have required keen insight into conditions, strong execution.

Married 19 Years
Mrs. Toeller was married to her husband in March of 1895. He is a stage carpenter and she says he had close associations with women of the stage. She also charges cruelty and non-support in her bill filed by her attorneys. Jean Patterson, whose present address is unknown, is named in the complaint.

Wed at West Salem
Mrs. Novak was married in June of 1901 at West Salem. She says she has been forced to support herself and her children since her husband deserted her some two years ago.

Mrs. Fisher was married in June of 1901. She also says she must support herself and her child, and so asks a divorce. The cases will be heard during the July term of the court, according to Hardy Denniston, clerk of court, with whom the cases were filed.

DULL HOME LIFE CAUSES SINNING

New York Vice Investigator Says He Has Big List of Immoral Daughters of Wealth

HIS STORY AROUSES CLUBWOMEN

Declares that Girls of Good Family Lose Control of Selves in Modern Dance

CHICAGO, June 17.—Clubwomen attending the General Federation of Women's Clubs biennial convention here today were thoroughly aroused over the frank statement of George J. Kneeland, New York vice investigator, that he has a list of 300 girls of wealthy families who secretly practice immorality. Kneeland is a director of the department of investigation of the social hygiene association. "I have the names of girls," said Kneeland, "who are daughters of wealthy merchants, of real estate brokers, of managers of large department stores and one on the list is the daughter of a minister. These girls are not weak-minded, nor subnormal, either. Most of them go wrong out of a spirit of rebellion against the dullness and strictness of home life."

"They generally turn to strangers, often traveling salesmen, for fear their secret will become known. They present an innocent front and are often prominent in Sunday school. But in the close personal contact of the modern dances they lose all control of themselves."

Closing sessions of the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs were held today with the Auditorium galleries crowded with visitors.

Reports of the endowment and resolutions committee were read at the forenoon session and at noon announcement of the result of balloting on 1941-16 officers yesterday was made. Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, of Texas, and the entire slate presented by the nominating committee received the approval of the delegates.

Without a voice raised in opposition.

Carranza Put General Natera Over Villa and Discharged His Chief Aide

EL PASO, Texas, June 17.—That an attempt on the part of General Venustiano Carranza to appoint General Felipe Angeles commander in chief of the Mexican constitutionalists' army in the north precipitated the revolt of General Francisco Villa, which culminated in his seizure of control of all important cities in northern Mexico, was the report current here today. The report is that Angeles declined Carranza's offer and notified Villa of it. It is understood Villa's choice for provisional president of Mexico in case the Niagara Falls mediators select such a man, is General Angeles.

EL PASO, Texas, June 17.—With the Juarez and Chihuahua and Torreon telegraph and customs offices in possession of General Francisco Villa, all northern Mexico today waited anxiously for the next move of the rebel chieftain in his apparent campaign to seize the reins of power from the hands of General Venustiano Carranza. That Villa's seizure last night of the telegraph offices was

Was a Prominent Member of West Avenue Norwegian Church; Funeral on Friday

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Members of the federal reserve board will have to serve without pay until they levy an assessment upon member banks. This decision was announced by Comptroller Downey today in advising Secretary McAdoo that he could not use part of the $100,000 fund allotted to the organization committee for salary advances.

SUFF CHAINS SELF

LONDON, June 17.—A militant suffragette today chained herself to the statue of the Duke of Wellington in front of the Royal exchange, in the heart of the business district. She called loudly upon the passersby to interfere in behalf of the women now in prison, until unchained and arrested by police.

CLERKS IN REVOLT AGAINST THE LAWS ASK MANY CHANGES

COUNTY TO ISSUE AUTO PERMITS

Change in Law Would Mean a Better Enforcement of the Law Is Their Claim

FOUR OR SIX YEAR TERM IS UP

Think Better Results Could Be Secured Than with Two Year Term; Other Issues Up

What the clerks want: Election laws changed so they will be elected in the spring. They are tired of being the "Goats." Term of office changed from two years to either four or six years. A law making it possible for the sheriffs of the state to succeed themselves. County automobile licenses. A later primary date.

County clerks of Wisconsin rose in open revolt at their meeting here last night against being the "goats."

The clerks feel that the state politicians are using them to get the vote out at the fall election and they want the time of their selection changed to the spring. They also feel that their term of office should be either four or six years instead of two. Many speakers pointed out that even though they did more than others to get the voters out at the

Youthful, Wrinkleless Skin Easy To Have

You who desire to regain a youthful appearance will do well to make the acquaintance of the two simple, but valuable, prescriptions here given. To make an effective wrinkle remover, mix an ounce of powdered saccharine and a half pint witch hazel. Bathe the face in the solution—immediately every wrinkle is affected. It acts wonderfully on sagging facial muscles, also, the lotion possessing remarkable astringent and tonic properties. To get rid of an aged, faded, freckled or discolored complexion, buy an ounce of common mercurized wax at any drugstore and apply nightly as you would cold cream, erasing this mornings with soap and water. This will slowly absorb the undesirable surface skin, revealing the younger, brighter, healthier skin underneath. There's nothing to equal this treatment as a facial rejuvenator.

THE TRIBUNE'S Daily Short Story

VERA GOES FISHING

By OLIVER ROBERTS BARTON
Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

There had been a time with the Wigleys, when their little house of four rooms was bright from roof to kitchen with floral carpets and wall paper and varicolored upholstery on all the furniture.

The soap business prospered, and Mrs. Wigley learned. Their next house of eight rooms had nothing floral in its adornment. Instead, the rugs everywhere had perfectly evident oriental medallions that might almost have been genuine, the parlor discarded for a living room, and the furniture so monotonously on the mission style that it might have all been turned out of a carpenter shop.

Besides there was an evidence of brass that was astonishing.

The soap business continued to prosper, and Mrs. Wigley continued to learn.

Next came a still larger house with real eastern rugs, rich dull mahogany, a very limited amount of bronze, and good pictures.

The soap business finally outgrew itself and Mr. Wigley now having a dozen iron in the fire to open the money pots of the people, the Wigleys had forged ahead indeed. Their home was now a mansion, the furnishings the wonder of feature supplements, servants in such numbers as to be spoken of as "a body," and the family was often abroad or at the country home.

Vera Wigley, an only daughter, had passed through as many vicissitudes in her upbringing as the home itself. At four she had played happily in the alley with the Mulligans next door. At twenty-four, she had her own French maid, her own limousine and chauffeur and exquisite clothes from Europe.

Mrs. Wigley kept pace with her daughter and was a very elegant person, to say the least.

But Pa Wigley was still Pa Wigley eating peas—not with his knife, but with a spoon, and insisting on wearing slippers in the house.

He was the millstone around the social neck of Mrs. Wigley. No amount of traveling, lecturing, tutoring nor pleading could polish him. He was hopeless. Just as soon as Mrs. Wigley obtained a foothold upon the social ladder, Pa would slip and trip them all.

Her despair was the more complete since Vera, too, had decided to do her own thinking of late. In spite of her French maid, she was beginning to show decidedly plebeian traits—evidently inherited from her father. It had been much worse since their arrival at the country house. The two had acquired the habit of putting on old shoes and tramping for miles over country roads. Vera's complexion was being ruined.

And only yesterday—Mrs. Wigley's eyes were still threatening to run over at the very thought—she had discovered them both back in the garden digging for worms to go fishing. Mr. Wigley had explained unblushingly that he wasn't using his other stuff (referring to his expensive outfit of rods, reels and flies on display in the gunroom) because he didn't know what the "blame things" were for. He and Vera had hickory poles he had cut on some of their rambles.

"It just means," sobbed the unhappy lady, "that our names will never go through at the Country Club. What will people think of us? The very servants are laughing."

But the most agonizing thought of all was about the earl's youngest brother!

In some manner they had managed to meet him in Europe the previous spring and he had seemed to like Vera. When Mrs. Wigley heard he was at present a guest of the Jack Turners, their nearest neighbors, she planned a wonderful campaign. Things just now were at a standstill however, pending the decision of the Country Club. True, the earl's youngest brother was plain Mister—but even so.

It was too dreadful! And Mrs. Wigley cried again. Dear knows where her husband and daughter were now. Tramping again—or fishing!

At six o'clock the wanderers had not returned. "I know just how Vera will look," declared the mother. "Really, I'm ashamed for even Marie to see her."

She paused. "Here they come now. Heavens! There is someone with them. Who in the world can they have picked up at this time of day?"

She stood on the broad terrace that overlooked the rolling velvet lawn. Three persons had turned in at the big iron gate and were passing the lodge just inside the entrance. "It's a man in a cap! He's got a rod too! Um-hum! Some tramp they've picked up fishing of course! I simply can't stand this much longer. And just look at Vera! She's a fright, and laughing like a ninny at something the fool's saying!"

The "fool" evidently did not agree with Mrs. Wigley, for he seemed to have eyes for nothing else in the world but pretty touselled Vera, in her broad hat and rumpled white linen dress.

As the trio approached the steps, an electric shock shot up Mrs. Wigley's spine and down again. She felt suddenly faint and leaned against a pillar for support. She had recognized the "tramp" as the earl's brother.

Mrs. Wigley had never stopped learning. One of the things stamped indelibly on her brain was—never to show your feelings! Smile! She had saved the day many times by smiling. There was the time Mr. Wigley shook hands with the Jones's butler.

Just now the sky and trees were spinning, the terra cotta paving of the terrace was rolling away in great waves, but the earl's youngest brother saw only the pretty, amiable woman smiling a welcome, and graciously holding out her hand.

"You remember Mr. Templeton, mamma, don't you?" Vera was saying. "We've had splendid luck fishing. We're as hungry as hunters, too, and persuaded Mr. Templeton to come to dinner. Oh, don't worry about your clothes," she begged when he apologized. "Mother will tell you we are in the country now and everything goes. Won't you, mother?"

And Mrs. Wigley learned something more. It was that the more you know, the more you know that you don't know. There were a few things that she didn't know, as she discovered that evening. They were all on the terrace enjoying the moon. Suddenly the young man declared impetuously, "It's certainly fine to know genuine Americans. Do you know, Mrs. Wigley," confidentially, "you have no idea how many Americans with money are—are making monkeys of themselves trying to play society instead of living real wholesome lives."

"That's why I like Jack Turner and his wife. They are nature lovers, like yourselves. And—pardon me, Miss Vera—I don't believe I ever saw any one so natural and so beautiful as your daughter was out in the boat this afternoon."

FARMERS LOSE MUCH BECAUSE OF WEEDS
MADISON, Wis., June 17.—Enormous losses from weeds are inflicted upon Wisconsin farmers, according to a new bulletin on "How to Rid Our Farms of Weeds," issued by the University. The author is Prof. A. L. Stone. Fully 25 per cent of the earning capacity of some farms in certain sections of the state is being lost. The author says millions of dollars can be saved annually by the use of a few simple methods of weed control. Two of the most troublesome weeds in the state are quack grass and Canada thistle. It is recommended that farmers co-operate with each other, with the legislature and the Experiment Station to rid this state of these enemies to profitable and pleasurable farming.

Daddy's Bedtime Story
The Dog Who Wouldn't Leave Her Puppies.

"You poor tired doggie!" said her master.

JACK and Evelyn both were devoted to dogs, and daddy always was sure that a story about a dog would please the children.

"I have to tell you this evening," said daddy, "a story about a dog who had five most beautiful little puppies. They were very tiny, black and white puppies, and their mother was so proud of them. Now, her master was moving away to another place, and a new man had bought his home. This person seemed, to the dog's master, like a very nice kind man. Immediately he seemed to take a great fancy to the puppies and their mother. So their master suggested that he should keep the dogs, for he was moving to a village ten miles away and had to go over very rough roads. He decided that the trip would be very bad for the mother dog and the puppies.

"Dogs are very loyal to the first person they love and who cares for them. It is very seldom that a dog is happy with another master when the first one has been good to him.

"The master pretended to the dog that he was just going for a walk and said goodby as usual, or rather, he tried to.

"But the dog knew that her master was sad, and she had noticed the other man about the place. She knew something was the matter, and as soon as her master started off she set up the most pathetic wail.

"The next day toward evening as the master was sitting in his new house a little whimper which sounded most familiar greeted his ears.

"Where could it come from?" he thought. He opened the door, and there stood his dog looking so tired and worn. She snuggled down by him, for she was so tired she couldn't jump up, as was her custom. But after a moment or two of petting she gave all the signs, which meant he was to follow her, and outside under a vine on the stoop of the house were the five little puppies, for she had not been able to leave them behind.

"You poor, loyal, tired doggie!" said her master. "You and your precious puppies will never be left again." The dog understood perfectly that she was welcomed with her family and that she would never be given to another master.

But in the meantime the telephone rang, and the other man telephoned to say that after her master had left the night before the dog had commenced her journey after him, each trip taking a puppy with her. The people along the road had seen this from their windows and didn't know what it could mean until the man explained that she must have gone back to her master.

"When the master heard this he was more touched than ever and told the man that, after all, he would keep his dogs."

WISCONSIN WATCHING

WOMEN OF ILLINOIS

The supreme court has upheld the Illinois suffrage act granting the ballot to women of that state. There can be no doubt that the "modern woman" is going to have a real chance to show the middle west and the east what she will do with this ballot, now that she has secured it.

Wisconsin women will watch with the greatest interest the success or failure of suffrage in Illinois. The "Interests" have been defeated, and the women will have no excuse to give their critics for the failure of suffrage should suffrage fail.

The women of Chicago have a bad city council to clean up and the women of the state a legislature of like description. The nation awaits "the proof of the pudding."

EVIDENCE SUSTAINS

THE INDICTMENT

Miss Gertrude M. Hogan's appeal for a full measure of effort and consideration on the part of those who come here from the High Places to entertain and instruct us sounds a sharp note of insurgency against "playing down to the smaller towns." Were the practice inspired by an honest fear of going over our provincial heads, it might be deplored without resentment; but that the players, musicians and lecturers of the "exaggerated ego" merely take advantage of the presumed mediocrity of the smaller city audience to shirk effort calls for all the emphasis of the stinging rebuke so cleverly administered by Miss Hogan.

Nor, on the side of duty, can these people who are so ready to take our money "for a song" escape the logic of that portion of her reprimand in which Miss Hogan calls them to account for neglecting their obligation to be teachers and leaders, everywhere cultivating the taste for higher standards. No true disciple stoops to the level of those whom he would inspire; rather he lifts them to his own sphere and in them cultivates an appreciation of his better atmosphere. The centers of culture fall of their mission if their missionaries neglect the opportunity and shirk the obligation to improve the standards of the little sister cities.

That Miss Hogan's indictment not only found a hearing in "The Bell-man," but gave its editor pause to write more than a column of approving comment upon it, suggests that the echoes of the rebellion which she has begun may reach the ears of those who have too credulously presumed upon the ineptitude of the small town audience.

TAKING ISSUE TO MAKE ISSUES

Business is disorganized. New enterprises are not begun; old enterprises are curtailing their business; willing workers are laid off; every morning newspaper reports the cry of the unemployed; dividends are reduced or passed altogether. The crops are promising; conditions demand prosperity. But business is not good; prosperity is conspicuously absent.

This from The Outlook, the bull moose organ of "T. R." It is the beginning of Col. Doubtriver's campaign for a "third cup of coffee."

The attention it deserves may be measured by the capital inconsistency with which it charges the president with responsibility for a state of war with Mexico, and at the same time complains of his "neglect" to protect American life and property in Mexico. We quote:

Mexico does not want war; the United States does not want war;

and yet we are in a state of restrained war with Mexico. * * * * *

This democratic administration does not believe in maintaining a government strong enough to say to both factions: The laws of war toward non-combatants must and shall be observed. So it looks on appalled but inert while bandits plunder and assassins murder. It will persuade, but not enforce; it will intermeddle, but not intervene.

USE MORE CARE IN

SPORTS IN WATER

Just a short time ago The Tribune published an editorial urging those enjoying the river sports, especially swimming, to use care. Already this season two have been drowned, one in La Crosse and a second at Prairie du Chien.

Mothers are urged to impress upon their children the necessity of "Safety

First" in water sports.

Let us have as few accidents this year as possible.

STANDS BEFORE TRAIN

RACINE, Wis., June 17.—Henry

Padden of Chicago, was killed when he was run down by a Northwestern railroad passenger train near Berryville, Monday evening. Padden is thought to have committed suicide, as the engineer said he stood directly on the tracks and watched the train bear directly upon him.

COMPLETE BANK PROBE

CHICAGO, June 17.—A force of assistants, working under the direction of Daniel V. Parkin, state banking examiner, planned to complete their work on the books of the La

Salle Trust and Savings Bank, the Lorimer institution that closed its doors, late today.

HUERTA DENIES TOWNE

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 17.—

Emilio Rabasa of the Mexican delegation, today received a cablegram from Mexico City in which General Huerta authorized a denial that former Senator Charles A.

Towne represented him in any way.

Foxy Old Dad.

The foxiness of father was referred to at a recent social affair, when Senator George Sutherland of Utah was reminded of an incident along that line.

Some time ago, the senator said, a pretty little baby girl arrived at a happy suburban home and immediately the entire family, including aunts, cousins and mother-in-laws, were busy selecting an appropriate name.

"Hardy," joyously cried mother when the old man returned home one evening. "I have decided on a name for baby. We will call her

Gwendolyn!"

For a moment father did a hard piece of thinking. The name of Gwendolyn sounded to him like a whistle out of tune, but he knew better than openly to oppose the mother. Therefore father grew foxy.

"Gwendolyn! Gwendolyn!" he musically replied. "I like that a whole lot, dear. Long before I met you I had a girl named Gwendolyn, and she—"

"Who said anything about Gwendolyn?" icily interjected wife.

"Your hearing must be defective. I said we will call the baby Mary,

after my mother!"

The Opposite View.

In a Great Western railway carriage, on the way up to London, a youth had disturbed and annoyed

the other passengers by loud and foolish remarks during a great part of the journey. As the train passed

Hamwell lunatic asylum he remarked:

"I often think how nice that asylum looks from the railway."

"Some day," growled an old gentleman "you will probably have occasions to remark how nice the railway looks from the asylum."

According to Form

An old soldier on leaving the army

plenty of time to grow

A traveler on a South of England railway recently asked the guard whether, considering the speed of the train, he might be allowed to alight and gather some flowers.

The guard had evidently heard it before and replied that the flowers were not out yet, it being early in the year.

But the passenger was quite unabashed.

"It's alright, guard," said he.

"I've got a few packages of seeds."

Take No Chances

The magistrate had asked all of the customary questions, about taking "this man" or "this woman" for a lawful, wedded companion, and

REFUSES TO SELL
BUT BAIT IS GONE

"It is better to sell than to be robbed."

So says J. G. Dubraks, well known business man and Wal-tonian of the north side.

Mr. Dubraks came home Sunday with a fine lot of dogfish minnows, which he stowed carefully away in a large tub in the rear of his lot. Along came two men who wanted to buy some dogfish minnows. Mr. Dubraks refused to part with any of his bait, although the fabulous price of half a cent each was offered.

Mr. Dubraks woke up Monday morning and went out to look at his treasure. To find the greater part of them gone. He looked closer and found the footprints of two pairs of number nines in the sod, leading past his rowboat, overturned from the bait hunters in their getaway.

The culprits are still at large.

Battle with Huerta's Craft

WASHINGTON, June 17.—A battle yesterday between the Mexican Rebel gunboat Tampico and the federal gunboat Guerrero, near Topolobampo was reported by Admiral Howard to the navy department today. He said the Tampico had probably been sunk as a result of the engagement.

The Tampico was seized by the constitutionalists about three months ago. Yesterday's engagement leaves the constitutionalists practically without naval power.

That the casualties were heavy was believed at the navy department today.

The captain and chief engineer of the Tampico committed suicide when they saw the battle turning against them.

The United States vessels New Orleans, Perry and Preble witnessed the conflict. The New Orleans stood by to rescue the crew of the disabled Tampico.

SCORES CANDY DRUNKS

INDIANAPOLIS, June 17.—The matinee girl on her "chocolate drunk" was described by Dr. J. C. Mitchell, of Louisville, Ky., addressing the National Eclectic Medical association in session here today. He said the matinee girl who eats a pound of chocolates and goes to a doctor the next day with a severe headache, was merely getting over the effects of a "drunk." "Too much sugar in the stomach will ferment as surely as in a distiller's vat," he said.

A PLAITED SKIRT AND A COMFORTABLE
COAT FOR THE LINEN SPORT SUIT

One linen suit a summer is quite necessary in spite of the favor shown cotton. These silk shirts are especially attractive for sports wear as they are something crisp and cool about it that is decidedly satisfying on a hot day.

This suit, 8288-8059 has a yoked coat, something on the order of a Norfolk, with large patch pockets, mannish collar and revers and a wide, stitched belt of the same material as the suit, which is pale blue linen. The skirt is box-plaited onto a three-piece hip yoke.

To copy this suit in size 36, 2 1/2 yards of 42-inch material is needed for the coat (8288) and 6 1/2 yards of the same width for the skirt (8059). The second costume shows a happy combination of crepe de Chine in the blouse.

RATE DECISION TO BE OUT SATURDAY

Interstate Commerce Commission to Publish Decision of Roads' Appeal for Raise

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The five per cent advance freight rate decision of the interstate commerce commission will probably be given out Saturday afternoon, according to general impression today.

Speculation, having generally taken it for granted that an increase will be allowed, is now attempting to figure out how much it will be. It is generally believed that the five per cent horizontal advance asked by the railroads will not be sanctioned by the commission. The decision, on the whole, probably will be an almost unrecognizable mass of figures to all but transportation experts, as it is expected the commission will specifically state increases allowed or refused on all commodities and classes.

Abolishment of some free services such as car spotting, switching, wharfing and dockage and storage, furnished by the railroads to big shippers is expected to be included in the decision. The commission has already indicated its attitude in this problem. Less optimistic observers believe the commission will give the railroads sufficiently increased revenues to render advanced freight rates unnecessary.

A five per cent increase means $50,000,000 increase to the railroads.

The commission, it is said, positively will deny increases in coal and coke rates.

HONORARY DEGREES CONFERRED BY "U"

Balthasar H. Meyer and Erwin Frank Smith Made Doctors of Law at Madison

MADISON, Wis., June 17.—For distinguished services in their respective fields of labor, the University of Wisconsin at the annual commencement exercises today conferred the honorary degree of doctor of laws upon Balthasar H. Meyer, member of the interstate commerce commission and a Wisconsin graduate and former professor of transportation; and upon Erwin Frank Smith, Washington, D. C., in charge of the laboratory of plant pathology, department of agriculture.

In conferring the honor upon Dr. Meyer, President Van Hise said in part:

"Born in the state of Wisconsin, you acquired your education from the elementary school to the university in the public school system of the state. For many years you were a member of the staff of this institution, and here you built up the work in transportation on a high plane. Your comprehensive grasp of this subject led to your appointment as one member of the Wisconsin railroad commission. As a public servant you have been filled with zeal to advance the best interest of the public; and finally you have always been in sympathy with broad cultural ideals."

To Dr. Smith the president said in part:

"You were among the earliest in American investigators to apply the principles of scientific methods of study of biological problems of an applied character. Your investigations in plant pathology, conducted for nearly a quarter of a century in connection with the United States department of agriculture, have placed this branch of science on a plane with animal and human pathology. In the particular field of bacterial plant diseases, your work has been as distinctive as was that of Pasteur and Koch in the realm of animal disease. More recently your contributions in this field have been opened a new avenue of approach toward the study of that most perplexing problem of human pathology, the causes involved in the growth of tremors and allied structures."

EBERHART LOSES BY SMALL VOTE

Lee Beats Governor for Republican Nomination by a Narrow Margin

ST. PAUL, June 17.—Ending the strongest and hottest fight ever staged between two republicans in the state of Minnesota, returns from yesterday's primary indicate that William E. Lee won the republican nomination over Governor A. O. Eberhart by a small majority. Returns from 423 precincts, including three cities, gave Eberhart 21,104 and Lee 21,205.

The result is not yet certain as there are over 2,500 precincts yet to be heard from, including those in the northern range country where Eberhart claims great strength.

In the democratic wing, Daniel W. Lawler of St. Paul is running a close race with W. S. Hammond for the gubernatorial nomination. Lawler carried St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth three to one. It is believed this lead will overbalance Hammond's strength in the rural districts.

Attorney General L. A. Smith has apparently been renominated over Congressman James Manahan. Henry Rines of Mora is leading in 134 precincts for state auditor with J. A. O. Preus second and Julius Block third.

A large number of relatives of the players and students were in attendance and all showed appreciation of the efforts of the play. "The School for Scandal" is a very difficult one to stage and to Miss Constance, who coached the play, is due a great deal of the credit for the excellent staging and acting.

Among them, too, are to be found a number who have achieved marked honors in scholasticism, and who have been awarded with the golden key of Phi Beta Kappa. Still others have been elected to membership in Iron Cross, Senior honorary society, which each year selects from the class the ten men whom it believes have done more for the University and for the class than have any others. The young men and women from La Crosse, who are this month completing courses at Wisconsin, have been in the front ranks in many fields of student endeavor.

They have held positions on football, basketball, baseball, crew, tennis, and gymnasium teams; they have represented the University in inter-collegiate forensic contests and debates; they have assisted in editing and managing college newspapers, and trade and literary publications; they have been active in dramatics, in social affairs, and in fraternity and sorority life, and have devoted time and energy to the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. work. In the Self-Government association, too, they have held important offices and played major parts. Several have been appointed on important committees for graduation. Two, Miss Harrison, and Mr. Jones, are on the commencement program, the former having been intrusted with the class history for the occasion, the latter with an address as a representative of the college of letters and science. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, of Alpha Chi Sigma, professional and honorary chemical fraternity, of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary literary fraternity, and of the International Club. He will leave for a trip to Europe shortly after graduation.

Miss Harrison, a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, finishes the course in letters and science. She was a member of the Junior and Senior tennis and basketball teams, and of the 'Varsity basketball and tennis teams in 1913, and captured the championship in the tournament of the Gachee Tennis club in 1912. She took the part of Edith, a girl from the east, in the junior class play of 1913, was elected to Red Domino in 1912, and was social editor of the Chadbourne Review in 1911. In 1914 she was elected to Women's Athletic association, and in the same year was placed on the Senior play committee. In February she led in the Wisconsin Dramatic society's play, "Two Mr. Wetherbys". Miss Harrison is class historian. At the close of school she will conduct a summer camp for girls at Lake Mendota, assisted by Miss Crane of Hull House, Chicago, and Miss Ryder of Wellesley college.

Miss Edna Jolivet majored in physiology. She is a "W" girl, having played on the bowling, basketball, hockey, and gymnasium teams. She is secretary and treasurer of the Round Table, girls' literary society. In the recent May-fete Miss Jolivet portrayed Aut-

In his Senior year he won the preliminary Northern Oratorical contest and placed second in the finals at which representatives from seven universities contended. He is editor of the Wisconsin Magazine, the literary magazine of the University. He has participated in plays by the Wisconsin Dramatic society, and is in the Senior play. He is also Senior Orator on the commencement program. Mr. Jones will be an assistant in the school of education at the University of Chicago next year.

Mr. Nelson took the course in commerce combined with manual arts. He has been doing part time teaching during the past year in the University High School, and will occupy a position there next fall in the department of manual arts.

CALL RESERVES AT WOODMEN MEET

Riot Call Quells Fight at Opening Session in Toledo Today

"THIS IS THE LIFE" TOOTS BAND

Head Camp Players Keep Up Music and Drown Protests of Insurgents

TOLEDO, O., June 17.—A riot call which brought a wagonload of police reserves to Memorial hall quelled today's first session of the national convention of the Modern Woodmen of America here. "Insurgents" and administration forces clashed verbally until hotter heads resorted to fist-cuffs. Someone called the police reserves and the officers found the convention in utmost confusion, with the band playing "This is The Life," and refusing to stop.

The turmoil began with announcement by Head Consul Talbot that the credentials committee would not be able to report until tomorrow and that the convention stood adjourned. A score of angry "insurgents" were instantly upon their feet insisting the convention was still in session and demanding to be heard. The band struck up "This is The Life," and with shouts of "give us a square deal," "Rotten!" and other epithets, the recalcitrants surged from the floor toward the platform. When the police arrived the insurgents were in control, but with the "administration band," doggedly and defiantly tooting "This is The Life." With order restored, the convention was abandoned for the day.

A resolution demanding an investigation of the general fund expenditures of the order was unanimously adopted by the insurgents today.

The resolution stated that expenditures for 1911 were $268,071.18 more than the total income, that in 1912 they were $587,017.17 more and in 1913, $255,385.73. It also charges that the general fund balance of $149,319.93 on hand on December 31, 1913, has been dissipated until but $75,000 remains to meet the expenses of the Toledo encampment which were estimated at $250,000.

VILLA BREAKS OFF RELATIONS WITH THE REBEL CHIEF

done to further any personal ambition, was denied by friends of Villa today. They assert that Villa has no intention of causing any breach in the constitutional ranks and that the action of his subordinates in seizing the offices and telegraphic lines was due to a misinterpretation of Villa's orders to Col. Ornelas.

Believe Breach Irreparable

Nevertheless, the belief is general here that the break between Villa and Carranza is one which cannot now be bridged.

Not a word had been heard in Juarez early today from either General Villa or General Carranza and it is not known whether Villa has taken any other hostile steps against the "first chief." It has been suggested here that Villa is probably getting the 12,000 rebel soldiers who are loyal to him, ready for a campaign against Carranza.

The break between Carranza and Villa was forecasted by United Press dispatches more than a week ago. At the time Carranza named General Panofil Natera as commander-in-

Mexican Congress Meets

MEXICO CITY, June 17. Hurried convocation of the Mexican congress in extra session today created excitement here and it was generally understood matters of the highest national importance were to be considered. It was known that the departments of foreign relations and of the interior had submitted a bill which was to be framed at this afternoon's session and the information available indicated that this measure was expected to figure materially in the country's pacification. Details of its contents were kept secret.

chief of the rebel army in the central military zone, Villa privately expressed his anger. Later Col. Calzad, Villa's chief of railway construction, was summarily ordered by Carranza to resign.

Carranza Lacks Troops
Villa's action in General Carranza isolated in Saltillo with no army to support him excepting, possibly, the troops of General Panofil Natera. Even these may be loyal to Villa.

It is understood that Villa decided upon the final break when General Carranza attempted to carry Zacatecas alone. Natera's troops were driven back, shattered by the terrible fire from Krupp guns uncovered by the federal's garrison under General. Despite the declaration of Villa's agents here that all was peace be-

BEAUTIFUL BLIND MUSICIAN KILLED

Whether She Was Murdered or Took Own Life Is Question perplexing Police

OAKLAND, Cal., June 17.—Whether Miss Helen Mesow, 30, beautiful blind singer, who is known as "the Helen Keller of the West," committed suicide or was murdered is being investigated by the police today, following the death of the girl at midnight under mysterious circumstances.

A friend of the singer shortly before midnight found Miss Mesow lying on a couch unconscious. A physician was called and worked over her for an hour with a pulmotor but in vain.

The physician said he believed the girl had succumbed to cyanide of potassium poisoning.

On a table in the apartment was found a card of W. C. Dohrmann, a real estate dealer, on which was written: "Helen: I wanted you to come to dinner this evening as it is our last night—W. C. D." Dohrmann explained that he left the card Sunday and that it was merely an invitation on the eve of a business trip.

NO CLUE TO LOST "DRY" LECTURER

DETROIT, Mich., June 17.—More than 36 hours of constant effort on the part of the special officers, a score of Burns operatives and every patrolman on the Detroit police force has failed to reveal a single clue to the whereabouts of the Rev. Louis R. Patmont, evangelist "dry" worker, who disappeared mysteriously early Monday evening.

That Patmont was kidnapped by men hired by Illinois saloonkeepers to prevent his going to St. Louis to identify men held there for alleged complicity in his former kidnapping from Westville, Ill., and his subsequent confinement for 53 days in the cellar of a deserted farmhouse near Columbia, Mo., was still the firm conviction of the preacher's friends today.

"The Detroit police are not working half so hard to find Rev. Patmont as they are trying to prove his disappearance is a hoax and a publicity stunt," declared the Rev. Claude F. Witte, intimate friend of the missing man.

Chief of Detectives answered Witte's accusation. "We are merely trying to learn the facts," he said. "If this is a hoax we want to know it and if it's genuine we want to know it."

tion, the General Federation of Women's clubs in biennial convention here today adopted a resolution condemning the liquor traffic and declaring their support of legislation, federal and state, tending to eradicate the liquor business.

The resolution, presented by the Federation resolutions committee and seconded by the Kentucky delegation, follows:

"Whereas, the liquor traffic is responsible for three quarters of the crime, vice and misery in this country; be it,

"Resolved, that the women of the General Federation place themselves on record as opposed to the liquor traffic and in favor of such federal or state laws as will tend to eradicate this evil."

Other resolutions adopted today as the convention prepared to close approved the social center movement of rural schools and legislation to prevent further diversion of power from Niagara Falls. A deficit of $20,000 in the $100,000 endowment fund started four years ago to carry on social reforms was raised in half an hour by pledges from each of the states.

tween the rebel general and Carranza, thirty of the latter's men, arrested yesterday by Col. Ornelas, were today sent by special train to Torreon, where Villa is reported to be at present. These men were employed by the customs office and telegraphers who have been handling messages from the front. Censorship on some of his messages is alleged to be one of the causes of Villa's dissatisfactions. The telegraphers are expected to be examined by him at Torreon as to who gave orders to hold up his telegrams.

Will Know Friday

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 17.—Deadlocked today by apparently irreconcilable differences, the A. B. C. mediators who are attempting here to settle Mexican troubles expect to know on Friday whether their attempt is to end in futility or to continue with hope. Friday the next full conference of the mediators with the American delegates will be held.

Washington Worries

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Particulars of the situation in northern Mexico were anxiously awaited by the administration today. The reporter seizure of the Carranzaista officers in Juarez and Chihuahua by an ominous ring. Whether it presages a complete break in the ranks of the constitutionalists, officials here cannot say.

The constitutionalist junta is also without news, but the officials there insist that Carranza's test and ability can be depended on to smooth matters out. High officials say that even though matters are patched up the fact that a break has occurred is certain to strengthen the opposition of the dictator's commissioners at Niagara Falls.

The deadlock between the mediators and both sides to the proceedings show no signs of being broken.

SETTLE DIFFERENCE AS FIRE RAGES

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 17.—The city administration of Lake Forest, Ill., went all to smash when the school house caught fire, according to stories told before Justice of Peace Welch this afternoon.

Thomas Douglas, who besides being alderman and justice of peace, is a member of the Lake Forest fire department, made some heated remarks when he arrived at the burning school house out of breath and found the gates of the high iron fence about the school securely locked.

Hugh Smith, who is postmaster and also a member of the school board, took exception and while the flames licked up the building, the volunteer fire department formed a ring, according to allegations, and let them "scrap it out."

Postmaster Smith caused Douglas' arrest on charges of assault and battery. The alderman - magistrate - fireman countered by charging the postmaster with disorderly conduct.

fall election, they were forced to contribute largely to the party campaign expenses.

Another Poor Law
A constitutional amendment is necessary before anything can be done, however, as this point is fully covered in the statutes.

Another matter of importance discussed was the term of office of the sheriff. Under the present law a sheriff cannot succeed himself.

"A man will not do his best under those conditions," declared one of the clerks. "He has nothing to gain by a strict enforcement of the law, and will therefore not enforce it to the best of his ability."

County Auto Licenses

"He will keep within the law and that is all. It should be made possible for the sheriffs to succeed themselves. The state will get better results when this change is brought about."

A very important discussion arose over the granting of automobile licenses by the county. This is the question brought up:

"What additions or changes in laws governing the duties of county clerks, should be recommended to the legislature of 1915?"

Grant D. Harrington of Walworth county opened the discussion by advocating that automobile licenses should be granted by the county instead of by the state. As a basis for this statement Mr. Harrington argued that at present a great waste is allowed under state management.

Better Enforcement

Each year new number plates are issued and all the old ones thrown away. This means a big sum of money wasted each year. Moreover he claimed there would be less evasion of the law under county administration as each clerk would know approximately how many automobiles there were in his county. The same plates would be used each year the license being renewed only. This cuts out the expense of new plates each year.

Use Number System

Much discussion followed as to the method in which it would be possible to distinguish between the cars of the different counties. Bert A. Jolivet of La Crosse was of the opinion that the counties of the state should be arranged alphabetically and a certain range of numbers given to each county. In this way one could easily find out from what county a car hailed by knowing the number alone. Other opinions followed and all seemed to agree that automobiles ought not to be taxed after a license had been paid.

Must Be Elected

William F. Wolf of Outagamie county read a paper on the subject "Should County Clerks be Appointed by the County Boards?" Mr. Wolf was of the opinion that such should not be the case, as it would be placing the appointment of public servants in the hands of a few men who represented probably at most only one-third of the population of the state. This, he declared, would be opposed to the underlying principles of the American system of government, which is based on representative office holding. He further declared that this policy would induce the county clerks to cater to those who had the power to appoint them and for this reason would not render the public their best services.

History Is Given

John Brandt of Lincoln county, the first president of the association, gave an address on the "History of the County Clerks' Association of Wisconsin." The association was formed in Milwaukee on Jun 6, 1906, and was attended by twenty-five county clerks. Only seven of the charter members of the association still hold the office of county clerk.

The Officers

The officers of the association are: President, H. W. Lee of Rock county.

Vice president, L. F. Shoemaker of Waupaca county.

Secretary, F. H. Eberhardt of Wood county.

Treasurer, V. P. Rath of Langlade county.

There are 66 members of the association at the present date. Of these 23 were present this morning at roll call. Among the visitors of the convention were four ladies. They are: Mrs. William J. Leader and daughter of Superior; Mrs. E. A. Price of Portage, and her sister, Miss Minnie

LAWYERS ARE HIT BY CHIEF JUSTICE

Are Already Too Many Lawyers Who Regard Profession as Money Making Business

ASSIST ADMINISTRATION OF LAW

Oath of Office Is Given to 28 by Supreme Court of the State This Afternoon

MADISON, Wis., June 17.—Twenty-eight graduates of the university college of law appeared before the supreme court at 2 o'clock this afternoon and received the oath from Chief Justice J. B. Winslow, which permits them to appear before the supreme court in litigation. Miss Olene Lapham of Lake Beulah is the only woman graduate.

Is Not a Business

"The court welcomes to the bar every graduate of the college of law, who, in addition to a comprehensive legal education, brings industry and a proper conception of the duties and responsibilities of the lawyer," said Chief Justice Winslow before administering the oath. "We already have too many lawyers who have not that conception and who seem to regard the practice of the law as simply a money making business. I am not referring to those who are actually dishonest in money matters, for to the credit of the profession it may be truthfully said that they are very few, but to that very large class who have no adequate appreciation of the real nobility of the profession and to whom the idea has never occurred that the lawyer is charged with the high duty of assisting the court in doing exact justice between man and man. Such lawyers deem it perfectly proper and even commendable to conceal the facts, mislead the court, and make the worst appear the better reason in the interest of a client and to charge a fee proportionate to the difficulty of this task and the success which has attended their efforts. They not only bring discredit upon the profession but upon the law itself, and they furnish to the apostles of discontent one

GREEKS REPORT MASSACRE OF 100 WEST OF SMYRNA

ATHENS, June 17.—A massacre by Turks of 100 Greeks, including priests, old men and children was related by Greek refugees from Asia-Minor, arriving in Salonica today, many of them wounded.

They say the massacre occurred in the town of Phokla, 25 miles northwest of Smyrna. A horde of armed men, assisted by the Turkish police, invaded the town and looted and fired all the buildings. The bodies of the slain, say the refugees, were thrown into wells.

About 3,800 terror-stricken people have reached Salonica.

TO HAVE HEARING IN CITY FRIDAY

Industrial Commission Will Hold Session Here This Week on the Wage Question

NO ONE TO BE SUBPOENAED HERE

Commission Is Securing Large Mass of Data on Question; No Wage Fixed by July 1

MADISON, Wis., June 17.—Contrary to the expectations of manufacturers and business men throughout Wisconsin, no minimum wage for women employees will be fixed July 1. This announcement was made today by C. H. Crownhart, chairman of the Industrial commission. The commission announced also that it would hold public hearings this week as follows:

Superior, Wednesday, June 17. Eau Claire, Thursday, June 18. La Crosse, Friday, June 19.

"It is not the intention to subpoena any one or even to urge their attendance. We are simply extending to employers an opportunity to express themselves on the minimum wage principle and to ask questions of the commission," said Mr. Crownhart.

Having obtained complete data on wages and cost of living, from women employees and employers in twenty-six cities outside of Milwaukee, the Industrial commission now is entering upon the final stage of its investigation incident to the minimum wage law. Letters will go to Milwaukee employers next week, each letter being accompanied by enough individual schedule forms to supply every woman employee of the establishments concerned. These individual schedules will be distributed to the women employees, filled out by them and then sealed and returned to the commission.

When all of the Milwaukee schedules have been received the commission will have in its possession several thousand brief individual biographical sketches of the women workers of Wisconsin. This information, in connection with complete data which has been and will be gathered from employers, will furnish a basis upon which the Industrial commission may deal intelligently before attempting to fix wages in any industry or any community of the state.

POISONED BY THE GRIP

The grip is no respecter of persons. No age or station of life is exempt from it. The grip is not a fatal disease but it leaves its victim in such a debilitated condition that one of our foremost medical writers has been led to say, "It is astonishing the number of people who have been crippled in health for years after an attack." It is a common thing to hear people date various ailments from an attack of influenza.

The condition of those who have had the grip is one that calls for a tonic for the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are especially adapted to meet this need as they purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves and give vigor, strength and health to the debilitated system.

"The grip left me without any vitality whatever," says one who has found relief, "and I lost all appetite and ambition. I was reduced in weight and was frequently confined to bed for two days or more. My friends thought I was going into consumption. I owe my recovery to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and cheerfully recommend them." The details of this case and a chapter on the proper treatment of the grip and its after-effects will be found in the booklet "Building Up the Blood" which will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

WISCONSIN TO LEAD IN GRAIN GROWING

Monthly Crop Report Is Issued by Board of Agriculture of the State on Conditions

WHEAT, CORN AND RYE ARE GOOD

All Grasses and Grains Show Marked Increase Over 1913, Is Report of Experts

MADISON, Wis., June 17.—A reported gain for nearly all classes of crops is indicated by the monthly crop report issued by Secretary J. C. MacKenzie of the Wisconsin state board of agriculture today.

"Present prospects indicate that Wisconsin will again lead in the yield per acre for all grasses and grains," says the report. "The average condition of winter wheat in the northern division of the state is 96.1 per cent; the central division 95.1; the southern division 95.1; the general condition for the entire state being 95.4. This average is 2 per cent better than for the year 1913. The average condition of spring wheat in the northern division is 97.9; the central division 94.1; the southern division 97.7; the general average for the state being 96.6, or 1.5 above the year 1913. The average condition of winter rye in the northern division is 96.4; the central division 95.2; the southern division 98.9; the general average for the state being 96.8, or 1.4 per cent improvement over 1913. The average condition of spring rye in the northern division is 96.6; the central division 91.6; the southern division 97.7; the general average for the entire state being 95.3 per cent improvement over 1913.

The average condition of oats in the northern division is 99; the central division 96.7; the southern division 99.3; the average for the state being 98.3, or 1 per cent improvement over 1913. Clover meadows show an average condition in the northern division of 99.5; central division 97.3; southern division 100.9; the average for the entire state being 99.2. This shows an improvement of 5.4 per cent over the year 1913. The condition of timothy meadows in the northern division is 96.8; the central division 95.4; the southern division 99.9; the average condition of the state being 97.4, or a gain of 1.1 per cent over the previous year. The average condition of alfalfa in the northern division is 94.1; the central division 92; the southern division 97.1; the general average for the state being 94.4, or 2 per cent improvement over 1913. The general average of pastures in the state is 101.7 or 7 per cent improvement over 1913.

Are Many Insects

"Counties in the northern division of the state show an increase of 10 per cent cleared land since Jan. 1, 1913.

A few localities have reported slight damage from hail storms, and many of our reporters complain of the unusual number of insects that have damaged fruit trees to a considerable extent.

Fruits Do Well

"The condition of the apple crop in the northern division is 77.8; central division 67.2; southern division 54.1. The condition of small fruits in the northern division is 91.4; central division 88; southern division 88.9. Damage to fruit trees by insects is placed at 6 per cent for the entire state, and fruit trees and small fruits suffered damage from frost to the extent of 5.1 per cent. Just prior to going to press with this report, we have received information that grasshoppers are appearing in large numbers in a few sections of the state."

ITCHING ECZEMA IS DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Use like cold cream to subdue irritation and clear the skin.

Constant or intermittent irritation producing itching and red, angry Eczema patches on the skin is readily relieved with bold-sulphur cream. The moment it is applied the itching stops and the healing begins, says a noted dermatologist.

It effects such prompt relief, even in aggravated Eczema that it is never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

For many years bold-sulphur cream has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous eruptions by reason of its cooling, parasitic-destriving properties. It is not only parasiticidal but also antipruritic and antiseptic and nothing has ever been found to take its place in overcoming irritable and inflammatory affections of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure, yet in every instance it instantly stops the agonizing itching; subdues the irritation and heals the inflamed raw skin right up and it is often years later before any Eczema eruption again appears.

Those troubled should get from any pharmacist an ounce of bold-sulphur cream and apply it directly upon the affected skin like you would any ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the Eczema is accompanied with itching.

JOHNSON TROUBLED SIGNS ARE WRONG

PARIS, June 17.—Boulevard fight fans here today were regaled with a story that Jack Johnson, who fights Frank Moran for the heavyweight championship June 27, is seriously disturbed because the "signs" are against him. Johnson, who is as superstitious as any cornfield darkey who ever carried a rabbit's foot, is declared to be moved by several "hoodoo" points called to his attention.

There are thirteen letters in his right name—Arthur Johnson—whereas Frank Moran has just ten letters in his—the same number called when a champion is knocked out. The agreement to fight Moran was reached on Friday the thirteenth. Johnson refused to sign articles that day but next day, without knowing it, he signed at exactly 13 o'clock as the French reckon, or 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

POLO TITLE GOES TO ENGLAND

American Four Drop Second and Deciding Match to Britishers; Play in Hard Luck

PENALTIES SPOIL CHANCE TO WIN

Over-enthusiastic Playing Toward Close of Match Causes Loss of Points; Score 4 to 23-4

MEADOWBROOK CLUB, WESTBURY, L. I., June 17.—The international polo cup, emblematic of the world's championship, will cross the ocean, having been won here on Tuesday by the British team in the second game of the series by a score of 4 to 2. Although the American defenders made a desperate last ditch stand, they were not quite equal to winning and thus forcing the challengers into a third and deciding contest. Their thrilling rushes, both individually and as a team in the closing minutes of the struggle aroused the 40,000 spectators to a frenzy, however, and no previous international polo struggle ever closed under such tense and exciting conditions.

When the eighth and final period opened the American four was leading by a fraction of a point, but despite their desperate efforts, they could not quite hold the advantage. Each team scored a goal in this period, but the defenders in their anxiety to clinch the victory, transgressed the rules by sharp crossings and were penalized for fouling. And so it came about that just as the sun sank Capt. Barrett of the Burlington club's successful four was carried to the clubhouse on the shoulders of the English cohorts, bearing union jacks and American polo devotees began to discuss plans for a 1915 invasion of England in a fresh quest of the cup.

Penalties Hurt Americans
Although the trophy regained from England in 1909 goes abroad as the result of Tuesday's defeat the members of the team gathered by Lord Wimborne knew Tuesday night that Americans can still play the game, even though the Big Four is no longer in existence. Outplayed and utterly routed in the opening contest, when they went down to defeat by a score of 8½ to 3, the Americans came back in surprising form and scored an equal number of goals to those made by the winners.

Many looked for a repetition of Saturday's play, but in this they were mistaken. The Americans showed little of the stage fright that marked the game in the initial contest. In fact, there was little to choose between the work of the challenging and defending fours on Tuesday.

English Below Form
Experts expressed the opinion after the game that the English four played a trifle below the remarkable form of Saturday and this was undoubtedly true, but the fact remains that the forcing play of the defenders gave the winners little chance to show the clever combination work in passing and striking that was so marked in the first game. LaMontagne at No. 1 still missed shots for goal, but he had recovered his poor form of Saturday and teamed in excellent style with Monte Waterbury at No. 2, and Larry Waterbury at No. 3. Devereux Milburn, back in his regular place as back, was really the star of the American four. He repeatedly saved his goal from being crossed by the English drives and was a tower of strength in the secondary attack.

Toasted From Cup
The rival players were toasted out of the challenge cup, and Lord Wimborne on behalf of the Hurlingham club said that he hoped that the Americans would challenge for the trophy in 1915 and said that if they came to England he would assure them of the same warm welcome and display of sportsmanship and courtesy that had marked the English team's reception and stay in this country. Summary:

Teams:
United States—No. 1, R. LaMontagne; No. 2, J. M. Waterbury, (cap- tain); No. 3, L. Waterbury; back, M. D. Milburn.

England—No. 1, Capt. H. Tomkinson; No. 2, Capt. L. St. G. Cheape; No. 3, Maj. F. W. Barrett (captain); back, Capt. St. Lockett.

Will Bring It Back
"We'll bring it back next year," was the general declaration of poloists here today and plans for meetings were made whereby America will have a chance to win back the Westchester cup. Praise for the work of the American team was freely given but poloists from the west declared openly that means would be sought whereby in future contests the pick of all America would oppose the British.

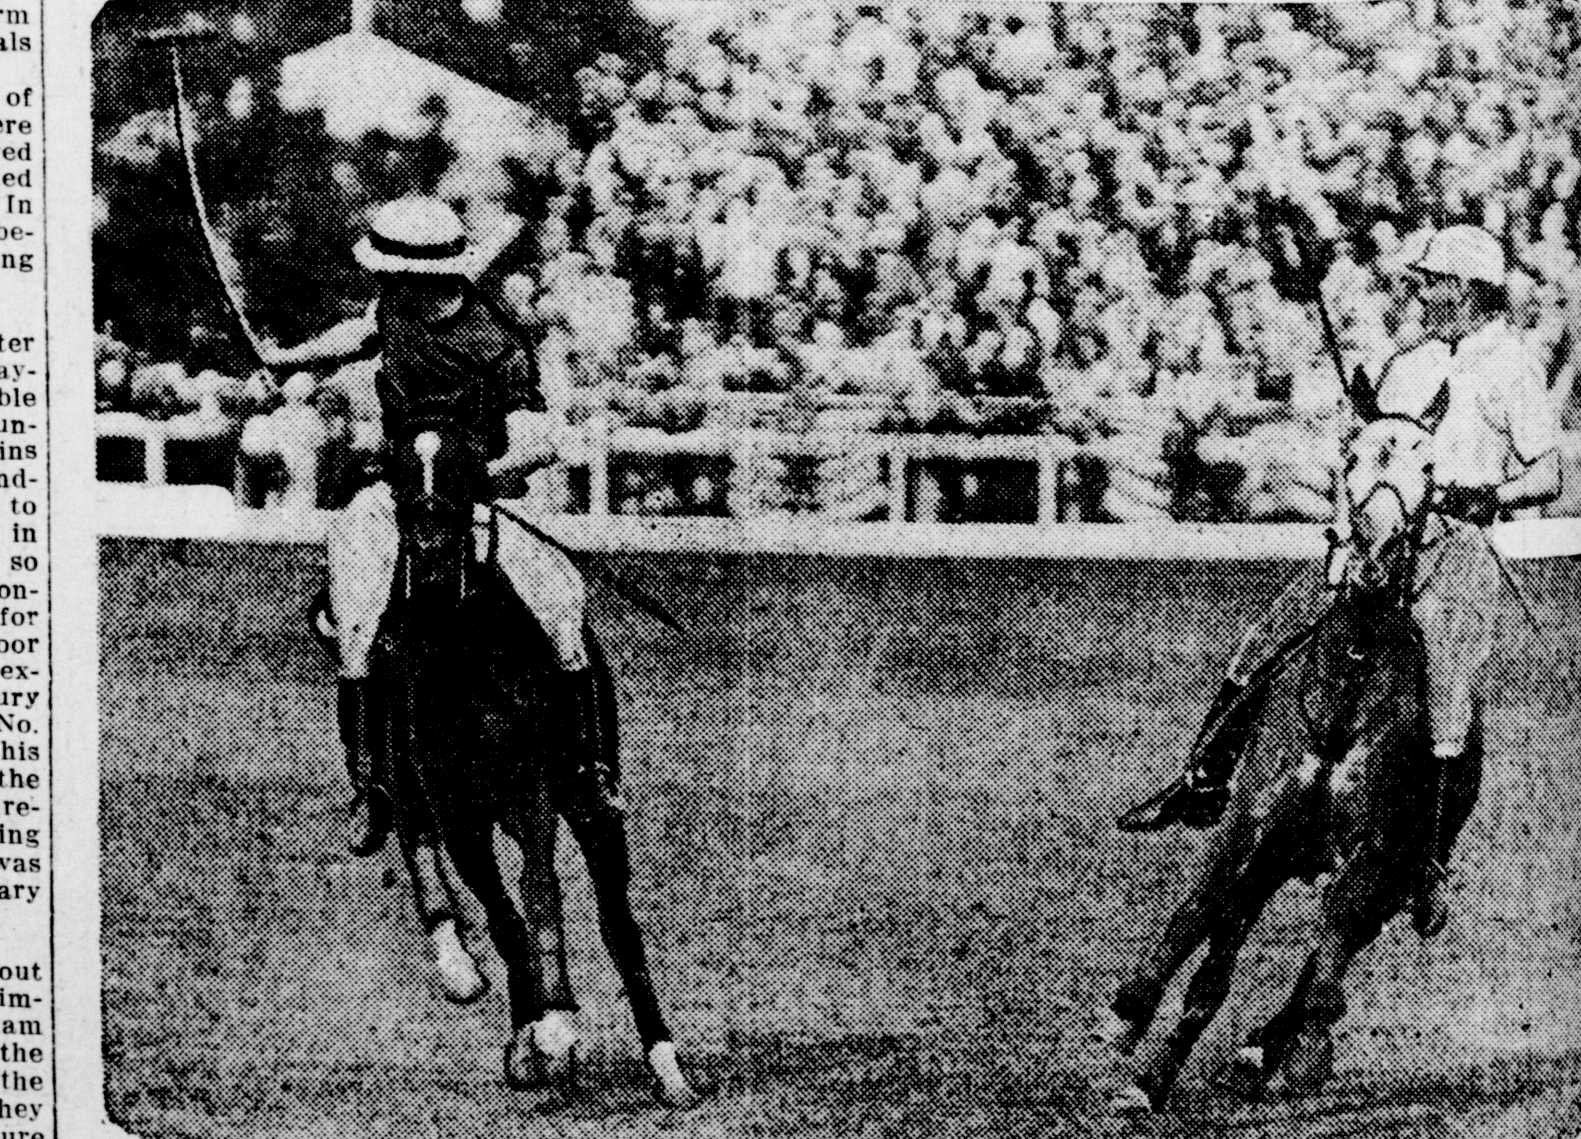

Criticism of the fact that the Onwentsia club of Chicago and the Burlingame club of California were not considered in making up the American team, were general. Many western poloists believed that at least two men could have come from the west who would have given more strength to the American team.

MILLION IN PRIZES FOR AERO RACE

NEW YORK, June 17.—The contest board of the Aero Club of America today formally sanctioned the proposed around-the-world aerial race to be started from the Panama Pacific exposition next May. Permission was granted on condition that guarantee be offered by a bank for the $150,000 prize money which the exhibition managers have promised.

A series of elimination contests in the 400 aero clubs in eighteen countries affiliated with the international aeronautics federation, is proposed. Each of these smaller events will offer prizes and the total prize money for the race will probably amount to $1,000,000 according to estimates of aero club officials.

BRITISHERS PICKED TO WIN POLO TOURNEY; SHOW GREAT CLASS

The unexpected class shown by the British polo team has turned the odds against the Americans. In brilliant and dashing style the Britishers defeated the Americans in the first of the games before an assemblage of 40,000. Experts pronounced the field, which was like a billiard table, to be the fastest in the world. The photo shows Captain Barrett (left) of the British team hitting the ball with Rene Montagne, the American team ready to block the hit.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD BY HAL SHERIDAN

Covaleskie of the Tigers, won his second shutout game of the week, slipping the Yanks but four scattered hits.

The White Sox chalked up their fifth straight defeat handing the Athletics a game well garnished with errors.

Bill Steen held the Senators to three hits and helped win his own game for the Naps by driving over a run.

Five hits, Honus Wagner not participating, was the best the Corsairs could do with Jeff Tesreau, the Giants winning a 3 to 0 scuffle.

A choice collection of silverware, handed Bill Sweeney by Boston fans on "Sweeney Day" dazzled the orbs of the Cubs, who were 7 to 5 victims.

The Herzog crew came from the rear and copped after the Dodgers nicked a four run lead off Yingling. Falkenberg hurled another winner for the Indianapolis Federals, settling down the Buffeds.

After the Brooklyn Feds had scored seven runs in their half of the twelfth, the St. Louis Feds counted eight times in their half and won.

Marsans, ex-Red, starred in this comedy affair, getting five hits in seven trips.

The Kansas City Feds slashed out a total of 33 bingles in a double victory over Baltimore.

COLLINS TO FEDS?

ST. LOUIS, June 17.—John M. Ward, business manager of the Brookfords, when asked today regarding the report printed in New York that Eddie Collins, Philadelphia Athletics' second sacker, had come to terms with his club, admitted that an offer had been made to Collins, but that Collins had refused to accept it. Ward stated negotiations with Collins were at an end.

MOHA IN BAD WITH "COMISH"

BUTTE, Mont., June 17.—Holding back the $2,700 guaranteed to Jack Dillon and Bob Moha for their bout staged Monday night, the state boxing commission announced today that it was investigating the affair. Dillon has $1,500 coming and Moha $1,200. The commissioners say they believe Dillon was sincere but that Moha did not try to fight.

With The Trap Shooters

The Topperweins gave a free exhibition of their fancy shooting at the grounds of the La Crosse Gun club yesterday afternoon, which was witnessed by a large and appreciative audience. Their feats of marksmanship with revolver, rifle and shotgun are really astounding and to describe some of their stunts would be unbelievable to anyone who has not seen them. In the trap shooting exhibition Mrs. Topperwein was assisted by members of the club, who made the following scores:

LADIES! DARKEN

YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.
